

History

Statutory ELG: Past and Present

Children at the expected level of development will:

Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society

Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class

Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling

Birth to five matters

Enjoys joining in with family customs and routines

Talks about past and present events in their own life and in the lives of family members

Knows that other children do not always enjoy the same things, and is sensitive to this

Knows about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities, cultures and traditions

Haggonfields' Knowledge Curriculum

Chronology

- Know the order of things that happened in recent memory
- Talk about and sequence past events using the language of yesterday, earlier from memory or with photographic support.
- Describe a sequence of events, real or fictional, using words such as first, next, after that, finally
- Follow a visual timetable of events (last week, yesterday, today)

Significance

- Know about and discuss special past events in their own life and in the lives of family members
- Know that we celebrate certain events, such as bonfire night, because of what happened in the past
- Know the significance of special occasions which have happened in the past and are planned to happen in the future

Evidence

- Know that information can be retrieved from books and computers
- Asks appropriate questions of others to find out about the past
- Look closely at similarities, differences, patterns and change

Cause and Consequence

- Know how to reflect on their actions to be able to explain why they took the action they did when discussing 'myself'

Tier 3 Vocabulary

Today, yesterday, tomorrow, present, past, future, when I was little, remember, long ago, order, sequence, old, new, then, now, same, different, change