MESSAGE FROM THE HEADTEACHER

I hope you all had a lovely half-term holiday. It has been wonderful welcoming the children back to school today, and I have enjoyed hearing all about the many Halloween sweets they have eaten and stories of their fantastic costumes!

In today's assembly, we talked about the importance of firework safety. I know how exciting Bonfire Night celebrations can be for children, but we reminded them of some simple ways to stay safe around fireworks and sparklers so that everyone can enjoy the festivities safely.

We have had a lovely first day back, with children returning to school ready to learn and keen to share their holiday experiences. Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to another busy and successful half term ahead.
